

Biography

Gabriele Marinoni, born in Como (IT), is an internationally active organist. In 2021, he was appointed Organist at the Roman Catholic church of St Anton, Zürich. Previously he held the position of Church Musician at the Protestant church in Hittnau (CH).

Marinoni completed his studies in organ, church music, harpsichord and piano at the Como Conservatory of Music, and at the State University of Music and Performing Arts Stuttgart (DE) under Prof. Dr. Ludger Lohmann. There, Marinoni taught organ as a subsidiary subject for several years. He also studied Musicology and German Literature at the University of Heidelberg (DE).

Marinoni has won numerous awards at organ competitions, and his international concert activities have led him to major venues and festivals in Austria, England, Germany, Italy, Russia, Slovakia and Switzerland.

Marinoni's first solo CD "B-A-C-H" with works by Liszt, Schumann, Reger and Bach, was released by Ambiente Audio in 2020. In 2021 Schott Verlag released the CD "Die neue Kuhn-Orgel der Tonhalle Zürich" on which he can be heard recorded live at the inaugural concert of the new organ, following the re-opening of the Zürich Tonhalle after its extensive renovations. www.gabrielemarinoni.com